

1 Again, ladies and gentlemen, there has been a lot of 2 publicity and it's going to be all around you now and it's 3 going to be very difficult for you to keep yourself apart
4 and separate. Your understanding how important it is to 5 both sides that you not consider something improper I know
6 will help you insulate yourself against this interference
7 from the outside world.

8 Don't read, don't listen to it on the radio, and don't 9 watch it on television. And tell those with whom you live
10 to please help us not -- not to become contaminated by this.

11 I have your lingering -- not a lingering -- your big 12 problem, Mr. Gladstone.

13 I would like to keep all of you on this jury, all 14 of 14 you until we excuse two of you by random draw. And we all 15 understand that Mr. Gladstone has lost a close friend and 16 there is a funeral in the morning. And I have asked him if 17 he would -- if he could possibly withdraw his request to be 18 excused.

19 Can you do that, sir?

20 JUROR # 516: I would like to --

21 THE COURT: You'd really like to, but you can't. And 22 if that's your decision, sir, I will understand. If that's 23 it, I'm going to excuse you.

24 JUROR # 516: Of being in a situation where nobody
25 would know anything about this, since it's in Chicago, so it
